A CHANGE AT THE DEPOT.

R. L. Cole, who has been assistant to the Missouri Pacific agent the past three years, has been transferred to Corona, Kans., between Pittsburg and Chetopa. This gives Mr. Cole an increase of $25 or $30 a month, but otherwise the appointment is not as desirable as the Jasper place. J. W. Humble succeeds Mr. Cole. Jasper will regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Cole as they have become quite active in church and school affairs. Mrs. Cole is now teaching the primary department in the Jasper Schools.

Mr. Humble is a young married man and has made a good many friends since coming here a few months ago.

Mr. Cole left Sunday evening.

HAMILTON WINS CROSS-CITY RACE.

Chico, Cal., High School captured major honors in the record cross city race when Wm. Hamilton, student body president, finished first. Six prizes of the ten offered were won by high school runners. Hamilton covered the distance of two and one half miles in 14 minutes and 34 seconds leading the race, springing a big surprise on the dopesters who had picked others to win. At no time was he in danger of being overtaken and for most of the distance the rest of the field trailed him by a block or more.

As a result of winning the race, Hamilton is now the proud owner of a $175 Stradivara Phonograph, offered for the runner making the best time. He also received a gold medal for finishing first and a special prize of a diamond scarf pin for the first man to pass the Dreis Store.

Hamilton is an active student of Chico High School, being prominent in the athletic field, president of the student body and a member of the reportorial staff of the high school paper.

William Hamilton is the son of Joseph Hamilton, now of Chico, Cal., and grandson of Wm. Hamilton who was a resident of Barton County for many years.

THE DOCTOR'S THERE.

When in the cottage blessed with Love's
sweet store,
A babe is born and o'er the rustic door
Is hung the crown of motherhood and fair
Is all within—the Doctor's there.

When 'neath the pall of mystic Death's weird spell
A mother's heart is broken by the knell
Of all that's dear, and on the stair
No baby feet—the Doctor's there.

When virtue flees and breath of ruthless lust
Eats into the soul as does the gnawing
rust,
When no one else with her the shame
will share
With mother's touch—the Doctor's there.

Where blossoms Life's sweet bud at blush of day,
Where breath of withered rose at eve-
tide steals away
On the South wind—in joy and care,
An uncrowned king—the Doctor's there.
